Program Overview

About PPA and what families can expect

Mission

Premium Prep Academy is a development-based post-grad and prep basketball program focused on player growth, exposure, accountability, and real next-level preparation.

Program Structure

- Location: Nashville, Tennessee
- Season: September through March
- Early arrival may be permitted based on roster and housing availability
- National-level schedule against prep, JUCO, NAIA, and quality independent competition
- Daily player development, team practice, film breakdown, strength and conditioning, and life development

Academic and Career Support

- College course pathway
- GED pathway
- Trade or certification pathway
- Credit recovery and GPA improvement support

Why the transcript matters

Transcript submission is required because we need to know grades and GPA to properly send film out, communicate accurately with college coaches, and help position each student-athlete for the best possible opportunities.

Recruiting Support

- Coach outreach and player promotion
- Film evaluation and presentation
- Guidance on fit, interest, and college communication
- Assistance with next-step planning

Standards, Rules, and Curriculum

Culture is part of the development

Program Expectations

- Compete every rep
- Be coachable
- Respect staff, teammates, housing, and facilities
- Represent Premium Prep Academy well at all times
- Handle academics, communication, and responsibilities seriously

Zero-Tolerance Areas

- Smoking, drugs, or substance use
- Repeated unexcused absences
- Disrespectful or disruptive behavior
- Actions that damage the brand, culture, or team environment

Housing Guidelines

- Curfew and house rules must be followed
- Cleanliness is required
- Respect shared space, staff directives, and teammates
- Unauthorized guests are not allowed

Curriculum and Development Focus

- Basketball skill development
- Strength, mobility, and conditioning
- Film study and basketball IQ
- Character, discipline, and life-readiness development
- Academic, college, or career pathway planning
